

6.L.1.1 Students are able to describe specific strategies for listening and viewing in various situations.

Verbs Defined:

- describe -- explain

Key Terms Defined:

- specific strategies -- definite approaches

Teacher Speak:

Students are able to describe (explain) specific strategies (definite approaches) for listening and viewing in various situations.

Student Speak:

Students are able to explain (describe) definite approaches (specific strategies)

- eye contact
- quiet mouth
- still body
- non-verbal signals

for listening and viewing in various situations.

6.L.2.1 Students are able to use specific strategies to retrieve information.

Verbs Defined:

- retrieve -- recall

Key Terms Defined:

- strategies -- methods

Teacher Speak:

Students are able to use specific strategies (methods) to retrieve (recall) information.

Student Speak:

Students are able to use specific methods (strategies) to recall (retrieve) information.

---

6.L.2.2 Students are able to describe the effect of images, text, and sound in a variety of information sources.

Verbs Defined:

Key Terms Defined:

- effect – impact

Teacher Speak:

Students are able to describe the effect (impact) of images, text, and sound in a variety of information sources.

Student Speak:

I can describe the impact (effect) of images, text, and sound in a variety of information sources

- television
- newspapers
- magazines
- internet.